

June 19, 1939.

Robert S. Hartgrove, Esq.,
576 Newark Ave.,
Jersey City, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to inform you that the Government has refunded the $50.00 to me, which I had paid on account of fines levied because of misunderstandings of tax payments from Ruppert Stadium. I assume that the return of this fine is admission there will be no further penalties and the case is written off their records, so far as The Brooklyn Eagles are concerned.

In the matter of the Unemployment Insurance Tax, which the State of New Jersey agreed to wait for until our Baseball season was under way, in recent communications with Mr. Millard E. Cuskaden, it has been agreed that the amount due by The Eagles for 1937 is $240.48, which they will accept $118.56 on July 1st, and $121.92 on August 1st.

You possibly remember that it was necessary for me to pay the 1938 taxes sometime ago in order to prevent payment of 100% tax to the Federal Government. This will take care of all the tax problems that I had asked you to assist me with.

The same time I approached you about the above matter, I asked you to apply for permission for our Club to operate in New Jersey, to date I have heard nothing from you on this matter. I suppose it has been due to an oversight on your part. I would appreciate hearing from you at once what has been done, if anything, about this.

I guess you have been reading about the Eagles, they are looking very good. Stop by the first time you are in Newark.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ